

RESIDENCE:
478 MacDaniel Road
Bearsville, NY 12409

KUNZANG PALCHEN LING
37 Pinewood Lane
Red Hook, NY 12571
(845) 758-9392
www.kunzang.org
www.raktrul.org

Om Svasti.

VENERABLE BARDOR TULKU RINPOCHE

In the sky of pure and unwavering devotion, all of the compassionate ones immutably arise. I pay homage to the incomparable guide, Rigpe Dorje, the lord of dharma who causes faith to increase in everyone. His three aspects are clothed in saffron robes and he possesses the glorious omniscience over all beings. I pay homage and circumambulate the many Buddhist monks, the protectors of the power of the merciful Buddha Shakyamuni. The dharma lineage of the Mase tradition (Zurmang Kagyu) is like the unblemished calm and smooth flow of a river. The excellent objects of refuge continue to protect and guide sentient beings indiscriminately in order to dispel their suffering. Having first offered these verses of homage, I greet the glorious seat of Zurmang Kagyu, Pal Tashi Zurmang Lhundrup Ling, which is hosting the great non-sectarian prayer festival. May the general collection of the Buddha's teachings, and the precious Dakpo Kagyu teachings continue to progress and may any degenerations be restored. Moreover, wherever there abides beings who hold the teachings, may their well-being increase without exception and may their lotus feet remain stable along with the fulfillment of the enlightened activity of the excellent assembly of the protectors of the teachings and beings. Also, in this world system may the age of illness, famine and war be pacified, and may it have the abundance and wealth of the heavens. May I and all and those who follow the dharma experience the supreme splendor of temporary and ultimate happiness. Especially, may the karmic obscurations be purified and advancement towards buddhahood increase for those who are members of the Chagbar and Dzila families, and the relatives of Bardor Tulku, as well as close relatives who have passed away and those with and without connections whether alive or deceased. May those living and those home and abroad, monastics and students, and the common people be free of sickness, have long lives and accomplish their dharmic activities. May the activities of the protectors of the teachings at home and abroad have no obstacles and be accomplished. In Nepal that suddenly underwent calamity, and other affected regions, may those whose four elements were harmed and thus passed away experience no obstacles on their path towards buddhahood, and in their future lives may they progress forward. May all those remaining pacify each obstacle in turn, and may they be granted an abundance of wealth that is sufficient to meet their aspirations perfectly. May this be known. May this be known. May this be known.

This was written by I, the one with the name Bardor Tulku in New York, USA.