Bardor Tulku Rinpoche, the founder and spiritual director of Kunzang Palchen Ling, was born in Tibet in 1949. His Holiness the 16th Gyalwang Karmapa recognized him as the third incarnation of Terchen Barway Dorje and it was under his tutelage that Rinpoche received his spiritual training. Rinpoche has lived in the U.S. for over thirty years and has been teaching extensively in upstate New York and Dharma centers across the country.

Lama Tashi Topgyal is from Raktrul Monastery in eastern Tibet. He received empowerments, reading transmissions, and explanations regarding the treasure texts of Terchen Barway Dorje from Lama Karma Thupthen, the main disciple of the Second Bardor Rinpoche. After many years of study, Lama Tratop went into a nine-year-ninemonth retreat. He came to the U.S. in 2003 to teach at our center.

Lama Nyima Tsering is from Raktrul Monastery in Eastern Tibet. He received empowerments, reading transmissions, the Treasure Dharma of Barway Dorje, and the instructions of the entire Barom Kagyu mahamudra system. After many years of study, practice, and serving as retreat master, he came to the US in 2016 to teach at our center.

Lama Yeshe Gyamtso did two three-year retreats during the 1980s at Kagyu Thubten Chöling under the guidance of Kyapje Kalu Rinpoche and Lama Norlha Rinpoche. He has since been teaching and translating for many great masters, including His Holiness the Seventeenth Karmapa and Bardor Tulku Rinpoche.

Tom Schmidt began studying and performing music in 1957. He studied with jazz masters Charlie Haden and Dave Holland and taught music at Naropa University. His Tibetan musical studies have been guided by Lama Tashi Dhondup, Lama Yeshe Namdag, and Umdze Lodro Samphel, principle chant master of Rumtek Monastery.

Michael Harris has been a Buddhist practitioner for fifteen years, a student of Bardor Rinpoche for ten years, and served as the resident teacher at KPL's affiliate center in Arizona for five years. Professionally, Michael has worked as a journalist and analyst for two decades. He is passionate about our opportunity to embody an authentic awakening lineage within the intensity of our everyday lives.

Davis Trachte is a student of Bardor Tulku Rinpoche and Lama Tashi Topgyal. He began practicing and receiving teachings at Kunzang Palchen Ling in 2013. After completing a bachelors degree in Tibetan language at Naropa University in 2017, he moved to Red Hook, New York, to serve as a volunteer at KPL and continue his Buddhist study and practice.

Naomi Schmidt took refuge from His Holiness the 16th Karmapa in 1974 and has been practicing dharma since then. She has taught meditation since 2002

KUNZANG PALCHEN LING

Founded by the Third Bardor Tulku Rinpoche. Its purpose is to make available the teachings of the four major traditions of Tibetan Buddhism and particularly those of the treasure lineage of Terchen Barway Dorje.
